

Samantha Espino has a passion for helping businesses succeed through each stage of their lifecycle, from formation, to expansion, to future transitions and beyond.

Samantha Espino is a diligent transactional attorney whose focus is business and corporate law, banking law, and bankruptcy and creditor's rights. Samantha Espino represents corporations and financial institutions in various matters, including commercial lending transactions, creditor representation in bankruptcy proceedings, and complex business transactions. She also advises non-profit organizations in formation and other matters.

Samantha Espino's experience includes working on mergers and acquisitions, commercial real estate transactions, and preparing syndicated loan documents for large agribusiness loan facilities.

She also helps non-profit organizations to address questions about formation, organizational structure, IRS filings, donations, and regulatory compliance.
