

UNDERWOOD

LYNN TATE

Shareholder

Lynn Tate has a passion for helping farmers and agricultural businesses thrive in the Texas Panhandle.

Lynn Tate is a well-respected legal expert in agricultural law, leveraging his deep understanding of the industry to represent agricultural businesses and families. His work ranges from litigation to business planning, succession planning, real estate, agricultural leases, and Farm Service Agency matters, demonstrating his adaptability and comprehensive knowledge of the field.

His portfolio includes a myriad of cases concerning the cattle and farming industry, such as disputes over livestock and real estate. Lynn's trial experience spans the Texas Panhandle, and he is licensed in both federal and state courts. His personal involvement in farming and ranching in the Texas Panhandle enriches his representation of clients in the agricultural sector.

EXPERIENCE

Lynn was previously an intern for the Secretary of Agriculture and has a degree in Agricultural Economics.

AFFILIATIONS

Texas Association of Defense Counsel

CONTACT

Amarillo Office
lynn.tate@uwlaw.com

P 806 376 5613

F 806 242 0543

PRACTICE AREAS

Agriculture

Real Estate

ADMISSIONS

State Bar of Texas, 1987

EDUCATION

J.D., Baylor Law School, 1987

B.S., Texas Tech University, summa cum laude, 1984