

UNDERWOOD

Clint Davis has nearly a decade of experience in probate, estate planning, and guardianship cases throughout Texas.

Clint is passionate about helping his clients protect their families, businesses, and assets. He works side-by-side with clients to develop sound estate plans that best meet their needs. His goal with each plan is to help clients leave a legacy while avoiding the probate process.

For the tumultuous times in a person's life, Clint provides stability and commitment, providing individualized care to each of his clients when they are dealing with the incapacitation or loss of a loved one.

Skilled in probate, guardianship, and contested guardianship, Clint offers compassionate and strategic guidance through some of life's most challenging transitions.
