

UNDERWOOD

Megan brings both enthusiasm and practicality to her work, and partners with her clients to achieve value-added results.

Megan Dawson focuses her practice on general education law, estate planning, and probate law. Megan collaborates with Underwood's education law team to represent public school districts in a wide range of legal and administrative issues. She has experience developing comprehensive estate plans that include wills, trusts, and powers of attorney, as well as drafting essential probate documents such as petitions, notices, and inventories.
